

Tisbury: Nobnocket Boutique Inn

By Kay Mayhew - July 5, 2017

Heard on Main Street: Smile. It makes people wonder what you are up to.

Congratulations to Annabelle and Simon Hunton, who own the Nobnocket Boutique Inn at 60 Mount Aldworth Road. Boston Magazine just announced that the inn has received the coveted "Best of Boston 2017" award for "Best Martha's Vineyard Inn." It's been four years since a Martha's Vineyard Inn or B and B was selected for any awards. The magazine also notes they offer loaner bikes and croquet, as well as "one of the island's finest breakfasts."

Tisbury residents are asked to write a letter, if you are interested, to volunteer to be the appointee of the planning board to the Tisbury Government Study Panel. Town meeting approved this group of seven people, not already appointed or elected to a position in town government, to make recommendations to the next town meeting. Write to the Planning Board, P.O. Box 602, Vineyard Haven, or email pharris@tisburyma.gov before July 14.

Thank you to so many of our local merchants. Reading incentives for the Summer Reading Program have been provided by Bob's Pizza, Bunch of Grapes bookstore, Candy Haven,

Island Cove Mini Golf, La Choza Burritos, Mad Martha's Ice Cream, the Martha's Vineyard Film Society (Capawock and Strand Theaters), Mocha Mott's, Murdick's Fudge, Sandy's Fish and Chips, Tisberry Frozen Yogurt, Toy Box at Tisbury Marketplace, Wolf Den's Pizzeria, as well as the Friends of the Vineyard Haven Library.

Besides the Summer Reading Program, free programs for young children at the Vineyard Haven library include a visit by storybook character Olivia, musical story times with Ellen Allard, Jeremy Berlin, Hugh Hanley, and Joyce Maxner, yoga story time with Anne Caldwell, a drumming workshop with
